BUKA PUASA TREAT FOR ORPHANS AT DE PALMA HOTEL AMPANG

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia – True to the Malaysian spirit, the less fortunate have not been forgotten during Ramadhan. De Palma Hotel Ampang treated 50 orphans from Rumah Titian Kasih Titiwangsa on August 19, 2010 to a “Berbuka Puasa” party.

The orphans, between the ages of 5 – 18 years old, were invited to De Palma’s infamous “Berbuka Puasa” spread at the Grand Ballroom, on the first floor of the hotel, besides entertainment from Sri Kencana Ghazal and “Wildan” Nasyid.

De Palma Hotel Ampang, wholly owned by PKNS, through their subsidiary had It’s Chairman, Tn. Hj. Md Nasir bin Md Arshad, to give away “duit raya” and goodies to the orphans.

“De Palma Hotels hopes to play a part in assisting the orphans to be strong, going through the fasting month and celebrate Hari Raya Aidil Fitri happily, “ says Datuk Haji Mohamad Ilyas, the Group General Manger of De Palma Hotels.

The hotel, since its opening, has been hosting Ramadhan treats and other events for the underprivileged children. As part of its ongoing Corporate Social Responsibility, the hotel has served extensive buffet spread with extremely good value for money at only RM62 nett (adult) RM32nett (children)

De Palma Group of Hotels’ Ramadhan Buffet is available at all properties , i.e.De Palma Hotel Ampang, De Palma Hotel Shah Alam, De Palma Hotel Kuala Selangor, De Palma Hotel Sepang, De Palma Seminar & Conference Centre, Palma Café SACC and Palma Café Kompleks PKNS Bangi.

De Palma’s infamous halal speciality items include the homecooked selera kampong cuisine which includes Siput Sedut Masak Lemak Cili Api, Nasi Bryani Gam, Ikan Terubuk Masak Asam Pedas, Ulam-ulam kampong with an array of sambal belacan, tempoyak, etc, to choose from. Other dishes in the form of ‘ala minute’ stall-concept such as Ikan Bakar, Nasi Ayam De Palma, Shawarma, Mee Curry, Mee Rebus, Laksa Johor, Barbeque Whole Lamb, etc. Not forgetting Malaysian hawkers’ favourites such as Char Kuey Teow, Roti Canai, Yong Tau Fu, Rojak Mamak, etc. Apart from Kak Yah’s Goreng-Goreng Stall, this year we have Kak Zah’s Nasi Kerabu and Nasi Dagang Stall, giving a touch of Kelantan cuisine, too.

De Palma Hotel Ampang provides a special package for if you would like to host your "Berbuka Puasa dengan Anak-Anak Yaitm" party at De Palma Hotel Ampang. Take advantage of our special room rates during the month of Ramadhan, including special rate for the last 10 days of Ramadhan for performing the Qiyamullail.

The hotel, also offers its special Bubur Lambuk, a delicious congee cooked with either beef or chicken, which makes a good starter to buka puasa. You may purchase them for distribution to mosques and homes. For enquiries, please call Ramadhan Reservation Counter at 03-42707070.

De Palma Hotel Ampang also houses a surau, "Surau Nurul Hikmah", which was awarded "Best Surau in the Hotel Industry" by Persatuan Pengguna Islam Malaysia (PPIM), has a permanent Imam to lead the prayers including Solak Tarawikh every night. Friday Prayers (Solat Jumaat) is also conducted at the Surau Nurul Hikmah, the first in any hotel.
